BREED THEATER.
Local Members of G. A. R. Guests of Manager McNulty.
Local members of the Sedwick post, G. A. R., were present at the performance at the Breed theater Saturday evening, as the guests of Manager McNulty. The big war picture, "Brother Against Brother," and were much affected by the familiar scenes and spirited acting. The theater was filled to overflowing, many being obliged to wait in the lobby, being unable to get in at the first performance. It was a very enthusiastic audience, and showed their appreciation by frequent and prolonged applause.

For this week the big feature picture will be a Tale of the West, a thrilling and west story, teaming with hair-breadth escapes and wild chase over the prairies and mountains. A splendid scenic picture is entitled "Empires of the West," which depicts the building of the great transcontinental railroad, and the ever familiar Jones appears in a new picture, entitled "The Great Escape," which is a story of a man who has been in prison for years, and who escapes from the prison, and who is followed by a posse of men, and who is finally captured by the posse.

PERSONS TALKED ABOUT.
Mrs. Wilhelmina Bischoff, who died the other day at Taunton, Pa., and owned and managed an undertaking business for more than 35 years and is said to have conducted more than 5,000 funerals.

The first ice machine was made by Dr. John Gurr of Apalachicola, Fla., where there was a great prevalence of fevers in summer. In 1850 he succeeded in producing small blocks of ice about the size of the ordinary building block.

Miss Nettie Revell of Chicago has been selected by the governor of Michigan as state press agent. Her headquarters will be in Detroit and she will write up the state and county fairs as a means of advertising the resources of Michigan.

Oscar Seelye, a Civil war veteran, who has authentic records to show that he was the first to enlist in New York state when the first call for volunteers was sent out, died at Muskegon, Mich., from an old gunshot wound received at the battle of Shiloh.

Those former friends of the late George Rice Carpenter in Andover and Boston who knew him as a youth and teacher at the Andover Institute of Technology will welcome the opportunity to contribute to the memorial library which the English department of Columbia university is to establish.

The American Fourth of July will be celebrated by Danish-American "Lith-American" Union at an exposition to be held in Aarhus, Denmark, on July 4, according to an announcement made by Henry L. Hertz, lieutenant governor of the state.

Father Vaughan, actor, priest and dramatist, died at a private sanatorium in Jonesville, Wis. He came into prominence as a great comedian, and his writing a play, "A Woman of the West." He was at one time leading man for Modjeska and it was the devoted Catholic actress who urged him to give his talent to the church.

JUST WHAT HUNTINGTON SAID.
Clever Salesman "Got" Railroad King in Book Purchase.

The late Henry Miller, who was guide, philosopher and friend to many booklovers within a thousand miles of New York, was a most successful salesman. One day he called on Col. P. Huntington and showed him a rare copy of —

"There are two volumes of this," said Mr. Miller. The other volume is in perfect order, as you see this one is. You cannot possibly let them escape you, for you know you have nothing like this in your library."

"What is the price?" asked the railroad king.
"Seven hundred dollars," said the bookman.
"Those are too valuable volumes for my library," Mr. Huntington exclaimed.
Mr. Miller went back to his place, and sent the books to Mr. Huntington's house with a bill for $700. Next day the railroad king sent for him.
"Why did you send me those books?" he demanded, sharply.
"Because you bought them," was the calm reply.
"I certainly did not!" cried the millionaire.
"Oh, yes, you did," answered Mr. Miller. "You'll remember perfectly well when I tell you what you said. You told me distinctly: 'Those are two valuable volumes for my library.'"

VICTORY THAT WAS DESERVED.
The Struggle of One Scottish Youth for an Education.

Many hardships endured by students attending university or college in Scotland have been brought to light from time to time. A student of Anderson's Medical college some years ago fulfilled the duties of lampfinger during his spare hours in a neighboring burg. He had no other income than the few shillings he received weekly for lighting, extinguishing and cleaning the burg lamps, and from this he paid his college fees and kept himself fairly respectable. On one occasion he applied for an increase of wages and was called before the committee. One of the bailies remarked that an able-bodied, healthy-looking young man like the applicant might find some other employment instead of wasting his time as he was doing. The application for an increase was refused. One may conceive the student's surprise at a subsequent meeting when the town clerk read a letter from the lampfinger tendering his resignation, as he had passed his final examination as a fully-qualified doctor.

Man's Inhumanity to Woman.
In all the civilized cities of the world woman is encouraged to demoralize herself and hold herself cheap in music hall, theater and even in opera house, for what men of propensities would like to see his daughter or sister in the attitudes and in the drapery so popular at such places? It all comes from denying to woman a responsible voice in the lower affairs and placing her on a lower plane. It is proposed to legally forbid her to serve in a public house, because of its bad moral atmosphere, which men alone have given it, while public opinion allows her to make reckless displays on the stage of the theater and music hall.—Westminster Review.
